

Our team is looking for reinforcement!

BST is a leading manufacturer of quality assurance systems in web processing industries. Worldwide, we secure production for more than 10,000 customers from the printing, paper, film, rubber, tire, hygiene and converting industries. As an innovative group of companies with decades of experience, we set standards in the market.

To strengthen our team, we are looking for a

Service Technician / Service Engineer (m/f/d) for BST eltromat Ibérica, Barcelona- Spain

Your tasks:

- Spain and Portugal installation and commissioning of new systems
- Optimization of existing systems
- Installation of extensions/modifications into existing systems
- Training of service employees and customers
- Sales support for technically challenging applications
- Availability for travelling in Spanish speaking countries

Your Profile

- Engineer / Technician, specialized in Electrical Engineering or Electronics Technician/Mechatronics Engineer with multi-year experience or similar apprenticeship
- Knowledge in drive – and process measuring and control technology, bus systems
- Knowledge in handling industrial systems of the printing industry
- Very good understanding of complex systems and applications
- Willingness to travel worldwide
- Spanish mother tongue
- Fluent in spoken and written English, additional languages would be beneficial

We offer

- Work in a friendly, qualified and international team
- Sophisticated and diversified tasks
- A modern workplace and flexible working hours
- Customized professional training and development potentialities
- Company car
- Homeoffice working based

We are looking forward to receiving your application documents!